

URISA BC Spring Seminar

Taking GIS to the Public

Urban and Regional Information
Systems Association (URISA - BC Chapter)

Date: June 06, 2005
Ramada Plaza Conference
Resort, Richmond, B.C.

TAKING GIS TO THE PUBLIC

8:00 - 8:30 a.m.	Registration - doors open - breakfast and coffee
INTRODUCTION
8:30 - 8:50 a.m.	Welcome to the Seminar - Taking GIS to the Public Gurdeep Singh, President URISA BC
PRESENTATIONS
8:50 - 9:20 a.m.	Burnaby's Community Asset Mapping System Speakers: Margaret Manifold, Social Planner, Derik Woo, GIS Supervisor, City of Burnaby
9:25 - 9:55 a.m.	Integrating a Community Oriented Webpage with GIS Speakers: Francesca Buck, Community Web Page Administrator, Meng Li, Computer Programmer/Analyst, City of Vancouver
10:00 - 10:30 a.m.	Land and Resource Data Warehouse Access Services Speaker: Chris Spicer, Head, Access Services - Strategic Planning & Corporate Projects, BC Ministry of Sustainable Resource Management
10:30 - 10:50 a.m.	Coffee Break
10:50 - 11:20 a.m.	British Columbia Geospatial Delivery with MapPlace.ca Speaker: Larry Jones, Senior Geoscientist, BC Ministry of Energy & Mines
11:25 - 11:55 a.m.	Saskatchewan's Emergency Response Mapping - Finding Our Way Speaker: Duane McKay, Director, Government of Saskatchewan
11:55 a.m. - 1:20 p.m.	Lunch Break
1:20 - 1:50 p.m.	Where's My Map? (Practical Use of GIS in Real-life Emergency Situations) Speaker: Jody Sydor, Director, North Shore Emergency Management Office
1:55 - 2:25 p.m.	Managing Disasters with Geospatial Information Speaker: Joseph C. Toland, eGeoTopia Enterprises - Seattle WA
2:30 - 3:00 p.m.	Public Alerting in Canada: A British Columbia Perspective on Emergency Notification Speakers: Lionel Eshleman, Emergency Management Program Manager, TELUS Geomatics, Ron Martin, City of Vancouver, Dorit Mason, City of Coquitlam
3:00 - 3:20 p.m.	Closing Remarks and Door Prizes