

Where ideas work

Ministry of Public Safety and Solicitor General Burnaby, Kamloops (Hybrid)

Flexible work options are available; this position may be able to work 4 or more days at home per week subject to an approved telework agreement.

Gambling Auditor
$74,300.00 - $105,000.04 annually

Are you a hard-working professional looking for an improved work-life balance conducting audits for an employer that offers a true 35-hour work week, 4-week vacation to start, a flexible benefits program, flexible work hours, the ability to work from home and a defined benefit pension? Do you want job stability, career development as well as opportunities to work on new and various projects/audits with limited travel? If so, consider joining our team and working in a unique and ever-evolving industry for one of B.C.'s top employers.

The Gaming Policy and Enforcement Branch (GPEB) regulates all gambling in British Columbia and ensures the integrity of gambling industry companies, people and equipment. GPEB is also responsible for the administration of Gambling Support BC and, through their programming, for reducing harm from gambling products.

Gambling Auditors conduct various types of audits throughout the gambling industry, allowing them to utilize their compliance, operational, financial and information system auditing knowledge and techniques. Gambling Auditors may also be assigned work conducting financial integrity analysis of registrants, AML reviews, investigating complaints from the public, conducting initial reviews, assisting Investigators on potential fraud cases and working on projects that support other areas of the Branch. Gambling Auditors holding the CISA certification may perform a wide range of complex IT audits and governance reviews of major information systems at BCLC, service providers, charitable organizations and events to ensure they are aligned with generally accepted IT control frameworks.

Qualifications for this role include:

- Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA) certification, in good standing; and/or
- Professional accounting designation CPA - CA, CGA, CMA, issued by a Canadian Accounting Association, in good standing.
- Note: If your designation was obtained from outside of Canada, you will need to confirm it has been assessed for equivalency through an applicable Canadian Accounting Association.
- Minimum of 3 years' recent experience performing audits and compliance reviews.
- Recent experience developing and implementing project and/or audit plans.
- Recent experience developing audit programs and assessing risk.

For more information and to apply online by January 8, 2024, please go to:

<https://bcpublicservice.hua.hrsmart.com/hr/ats/Posting/view/107330>